

A Prayer for the Day

This morning I wake and I thank You.
For the gift of seeing a new day begin,
and the energy I'll need, to make it through today.

When the day is over and night-time comes,
I will thank You.

For the gift of knowing a day has been well-spent and for the tranquillity that comes with a darkened sky.

Morning to night; a precious cycle.
I am each day, grateful.

Amen
