

Winter Poems by Pre Prep Two

Winter smells like freezing icicles

Winter looks like snowballs flying high

Winter sounds like people laughing wildly

Winter feels like touching frozen snowflakes

Winter tastes like candy canes and peppermints

Amirah

Winter smells like cold and frosty

Winter looks like branches snapping against trees

Winter sounds like jingly bells ringing

Winter feels like snowflakes on my head

Winter tastes like hot mince pies and chocolate

Matthew

Winter smells like snow on my window

Winter looks like a happy snowman

Winter sounds like Santa knocking on my door

Winter feels like a soft blanket

Winter tastes like hot chocolate in the air

Harrison

Winter smells like mince pies cooking in the oven

Winter looks like stockings full of presents

Winter sounds like church bells ringing

Winter feels like warm and fluffy coats

Winter tastes like roast beef and gravy

Charlotte

Winter smells like the cold air outside

Winter looks like snow falling from the sky

Winter sounds like jingle bells

Winter feels like a warm blanket

Winter tastes like mince pies

Freya M

Winter smells like icy snow

Winter looks like beautiful snowflakes

Winter sounds like children having snow fights

Winter feels like cold breezes blowing on my ears

Winter tastes like pigs in blankets

Aimee

Winter smells like the freezing cold

Winter looks like fun in the snow

Winter sounds like quiet fluffy snowflakes

Winter feels like soft blankets

Winter tastes like a hot turkey dinner

Eniwaju

Winter smells like joy all around me

Winter looks like a white carpet covering the ground

Winter sounds like teddy bears falling out of the sky

Winter feels like the breeze of night time

Winter tastes like hot chocolate on a freezing day

Marcus

Winter smells like cold in the air

Winter looks like white balls of ice

Winter sounds like throwing snowballs

Winter feels like someone cold touching me

Winter tastes like ice lollies

Muhammad

Winter smells like frozen noses

WINTER

Winter looks like polar bears

Winter sounds like cracking icicles

Winter feels like slippery water

Winter tastes like frozen ice drinks

Daniel

Winter smells like icy snow

Winter looks like snow being thrown

Winter sounds like sliding on ice

Winter feels like hiding in my blanket

Winter tastes like nice hot coffee

Luis
